

Modern Foreign Language instruction is delivered via computer using an interactive program called 'Tell Me More'. The program utilizes sophisticated voice-recognition software, and presents a balance of speech, reading, and writing. French is the primary language taught. Upon request from a parent, students will have the option of learning Spanish, Dutch, Italian, or German in lieu of French.