

Where do most of your students come from?

Rocky Christian School is a non-denominational school. We are not operated by a church but rather, Christians from many denominations come together to provide a Christian school for all children from Christian families in the Rocky Mountain House and Clearwater county area. We are blessed to have students come to our school from a wide variety of churches within the community.