

Students are taught using the Alberta Curriculum standards. Many of our texts and workbooks are the same ones used in the public school system, but all materials are viewed with 'Christian glasses.' For example: when teaching a unit on machines, students not only come to understand God's design in machines, but study the need for wise and responsible use of machines.